BASKETBALL DOUBLEHEADERS SET FOR WEEKEND

There will be plenty of basketball at the Loyola Campus Stinger Hive gymnasium on Halloween weekend with a pair of doubleheaders featuring the Concordia men's and women's varsity squads.

On Friday night (Oct. 30) the women host Dalhousie University at 6:30 while the men take on Carleton University at 8:30. In matinee action Saturday the women have a 1 p.m. confrontation against Brandon with the men playing Ottawa University at 3 p.m.

Louisa Zerbe, new head coach of a vastly improved Concordia women's team, is excited about her squad's chances this season. Veterans Carole Assalian and Carol McIntyre are expected to lead the way offensively and rookie Suzi Czelnai has been impressive in the early going as well.

Dalhousie is one of the powers of the Atlantic Universities Athletic Association. Their top player is Kathy McCormack, a key performer for the Canadian National Team.

On the men's side, Concordia head coach Doug Daigneault did an outstanding off-season recruiting job to fill the sneakers of graduating superstars Rob Latter and Craig Norman. Dino Perin and Ernie Rosa have stepped right into the starting lineup from Vanier College.
